23. Best Practices of Institution:

1) During 2020-'21, as part of Institutional Social Responsibility the college has resolved to adopt "Integration of Academics with Rural Development" as its Best Practice. The adopted villages were used as platforms for the practical implementation of the fruits of academics students have gained. The practice couldn't be taken up in its entirety due to the pandemic. Initially, half a dozen departments were successful in the mission.

2) The Departments of Geology and Geography visited the villages and involved students in soil testing, detecting ground water levels and sensitized people on soil pollution, techniques of improving the ground water levels, soil fertility etc.

3) The Departments of Zoology and Botany involved students to demonstrate the scientific techniques of plant grafting, hybridization, and healthy ways of management of buffaloes, goats, and sheep.

4) The Department of English helped students visit the upper primary schools to practice student centric pedagogical tools to teach grammar.

5) The Department of Economics, Statistics and Commerce have conducted economic surveys to sensitize people on various government schemes and ways of utilizing them.

6) The Departments of Psychology and Political Science have sensitized the villagers against social evils such as early marriages, smoking and drinking alcohol.
