JOY OF GIVING

1. Title of the Practice

"Joy of Giving"

2. Objectives of the practice

- Develop an aptitude among students including staff to give things to the needy and get joy out of it.
- To understand the requirements of the needy and try to meet them through suitable materials supply.
- Develop students with moral values and a responsible person towards society.

3. The context

There are so many orphanages, old age homes and special centers and organizations that cater the needs of poor and needy in and around Rajahmundry. Department of Physics also contributes to the cause and encourages students in that direction through the program "Joy of Giving".

4. The practice

- The Department of Physics & Electronics was kind enough to celebrate the "Joy of giving" by inculcating the habit of giving and sharing.
- This not only brings satisfaction to oneself but also shows the social responsibility towards the deprived society and needy.
- The faculty and the students of Govt. College (A) Rajahmundry from the Department of Physics & Electronics went to "Gowtham Jeevakarunya Sangham, Rajahmundry " on 29th January 2024.
- Spent some time with age old people shared their happiness and sorrows and assured them we are always there and our helping hand will be always ahead forward towards them. Distributed some fruits to each and every person in the old age home.

5. Evidence of success

- The people at old age home are very happy and shared their memories and sorrows with the faculty and students
- Later on they shared their feelings and explore them self.
- They even enjoyed by talking heart full with us.
