A REPORT on
ENGLISH LANGUAGE DAY CELEBRATIONS

The Department of English, Government College (Autonomous), Rajahmundry, celebrated English Language Day on the occasion of William Shakespeare's birth and death anniversary on 23rd April at the Faculty Development Academy with few students attending offline.

The programme was presided over by Mrs. M. Sri Lakshmi, In-charge, Department of English. The Keynote Address was delivered by Dr. S.J. Earnest, Principal, Noble College, Machilipatnam.

In her welcome address, Mrs. M. Sri Lakshmi highlighted the significance of English Language Day and paid tribute to Shakespeare, the "Bard of Avon," whose contributions continue to shape world literature and global communication.

Dr. Earnest delivered a captivating lecture on Shakespearean Tragedy, explaining the contrasting views of Plato and Aristotle on the purpose of tragedy in literature. He explained key concepts such as catharsis, hamartia, and purgation, and analysed the four great tragedies of Shakespeare – Hamlet, Othello, King Lear, and Macbeth. He emphasized how Shakespeare's protagonists, though noble and virtuous, suffer downfall due to a tragic flaw and are often caught in the web of fate.

The event witnessed active participation from faculty members and students, who expressed their appreciation for the insightful lecture.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Noojilla Srinivas, Lecturer in English.

Quiz and Poem recitation competitions were conducted in prior to the students. All the participants for the lecture and online quiz were given e-certificates. First and second prizes were given to the poem recitation participants.

Nearly 20 Special English students participated in the online quiz competition and 10 students for Poem Recitation competitions.

Mr. Wisdom Alphonso Banda from I B.Com AT received 1st prize for his poem recitation named –“ Our Deepest Fear” by Marianne Williamson.

P. Kishore from I B.A Special English received 2nd prize for his poem recitation named –“ You Say that you Love Rain” by William Shakespeare.

Dear Sir,

Greetings from Government College (A), Rajahmundry.

Your Distinguished Lecture on “Shakespearean Tragedy” on the occasion of English Language Day Celebrations delivered to our students on 23-04-2025, is really outstanding. On behalf of my teaching and student fraternity I congratulate you for your marvelous presentation . No doubt your informative talk has enlightened our students especially our Special English students. They are enriched with more knowledge regarding the genre of Tragedy and also about the greatness and mastery of William Shakespeare in handling a Tragedy.I specially thank you for spending your valuable time inspite of your busy schedule as a principal which reflects your zeal and passion towards literature and teaching. We expect more lectures from you in future too.

Looking to meet you once again in many more insightful academic activities conducted by our college.

Thank you once again dear sir.

Warm regards,

Principal, Government College (A), Rajahmundry

Greetings from Government College (A), Rajahmundry.

It is with great pleasure that I write to extend a warm invitation to you to deliver a Distinguished Lecture through online mode on the occasion of English Language Day, which we will be observing on 23rd April, 2025. As part of our celebrations, we are organizing a special academic session for our students and faculty members, and we would be deeply honored if you could deliver a lecture on the theme: "Shakespearean Tragedy."

Your scholarship in English literature, particularly your insightful engagement with Shakespearean drama, makes you an ideal speaker for this occasion. We are confident that your lecture will enrich our academic environment and inspire meaningful dialogue among our students and faculty.

The event is scheduled to take place at 3.00pm on 23-04-2025. The link will be shared to you in prior. We sincerely hope you will accept our invitation and grace us with your presence. Please let us know your availability at your earliest convenience.

Thank you, and looking forward to a positive response.
Warm regards,

Principal,
Government College (A), Rajahmundry.
