

Circular

30-01-25

Dear all please attend the Departmental meeting on the social work at 11 am - to visit PARA Non Governmental Organization Kavulapalem

Agenda - 1

- How to collaborate with NGO

- The purpose of the visit what activities are going on in the Organization

Sutan

S. Keri

K. Ramesh Kumar

30-01-25

Students from Department of Social work have visited PARA Non governmental Organization on 30-01-25. People's Action for Rural Awakening (PARA) Jadhvi phidhani have expressed about the importance of constitution and human rights and to protect rights.

The following activities have discussed to social work student,

1. Welfare programs for women, children and students for below poverty line
2. Discussed about co-operative society for community people how they are working and benefiting for poor
3. Micro' members have discussed about education, health, women & children issues to the students
4. Students are benefited with see direct counselling and therapy for depressed
5. Senior radiologist Dr. Rama Rao has give demo, first AID for hard patient
6. Senior psychologist Dr. T. D. Thon has taken class for students the importance of emotion
7. Medically students have observed how to save the people from natural disasters and how to help them and on their activities

Ritu
S. E.