

Alluri Sitaram Raju Jayanthi

The National Service Scheme (NSS) and the History Department of the Government College (Autonomous), Rajahmundry, jointly celebrated the birth anniversary of freedom fighter Alluri Sitarama Raju with grandeur on Thursday.

Dr. Ramachandra R.K., Principal of Government College (A), Rajahmundry, presided over the event and garlanded the portrait of Alluri Sitarama Raju. Highlighting the historical connection between Alluri Sitarama Raju and Rajahmundry, he emphasized that Raju was a freedom fighter who believed in achieving independence through armed struggle. He inspired the students to take Alluri's life as a source of motivation.

Dr. B. Anjani Kumari, Head of the History Department, elaborated on Alluri Sitarama Raju's resistance against the British rule. Addressing the event, NSS Coordinator Dr. B. Mallikarjuna recalled the heroic efforts of the tribal warrior Alluri Sitarama Raju, who valiantly fought against the British rule and attained martyrdom. The program saw active participation from History faculty member P. Tulasi Kumari, NSS program officers Dr. B. Bhavani, Dr. P. Murali, and Dr. K. Ganiraju, NSS volunteers, teaching and non-teaching staff, and students, making the event a resounding success.
